9. Further to the above provision, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles will apply:

2. Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision shall be sanctioned by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

3. The participating clubs acknowledge and accept that, once all stages of appeal have been exhausted at FIFA, their sole recourse shall be to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne, Switzerland, unless excluded or for final and binding decisions. Any such arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration.

If the pitch's playing surface becomes unplayable during a match, the captain of the protesting team shall immediately lodge a protest with the referee in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protests shall be confirmed in writing to the FIFA General Coordinator by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match (cf. art. 2 par. 3 of the Regulations).

- 5. Protests against any incidents that occur during the course of a match shall be made to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has resumed in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the FIFA General Coordinator by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match.

6. No protests may be made about the referee's decisions regarding facts connected with play. Such decisions are final and not subject to appeal, unless otherwise stipulated in the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
7. If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, the FIFA Disciplinary Committee may impose a sanction.

9. The FIFA Organising Committee shall pass decisions on any protests lodged, subject to the exceptions stipulated in these Regulations, the FIFA Statutes or any other FIFA regulations.

10 Equipment

The similar display of commercial messages and slogans in any language or form by players and officials is not allowed for the duration of their time at any official activity organised by FIFA (including in the stadiums and at the training sites, as well as during official press conferences and mixed-zone activities). Any violations shall be dealt with by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
2. Each team shall inform FIFA of two different and contrasting colours (one predominantly dark and one predominantly light) for its official and reserve team kits (shirt, shorts and socks). In addition, each team shall select three contrasting colours for the goalkeepers. These three goalkeeper kits must be distinctly different and contrasting from each other as well as different and contrasting from the official and reserve team kits. This information shall be sent to FIFA on the team colour form. Only these colours may be worn during matches.

3. During the World Cup, all equipment (kits, gloves, bags, medical equipment, etc.) that could be on display within the stadiums, the training sites, the hotels or during media activities or transfers to, from or within the host country must be approved by FIFA.

4. Each participating club shall provide FIFA with exact samples of the following equipment:

a) official and reserve kits (two sets of shirts, shorts, socks);

b) three sets of the goalkeeper's kit (shirts, shorts, socks);

c) goalkeeper's gloves and caps;

d) equipment that will be worn by the substitute players and the technical staff sitting on the bench during the matches.

The approval procedure for all such kits and the applicable deadlines will be communicated by circular letter.

5. FIFA will inform the teams of the colours that they shall wear for each match.

6. Throughout the World Cup, each player shall wear the number assigned to him on the final list of players. The player's number shall be displayed on the back of each of his playing shirts. The same number may, at the participating club's discretion, be displayed on the front of the shirts and/or on the front of the shorts. If a participating club chooses to display the player's number on the front of the shirts and/or shorts, the display must comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.

- 7. The player's last name or popular name (or abbreviation) shall be affixed above the number on the back of the shirt and shall be clearly legible in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.
- 8. In addition to all of the above and as the only exception to points 6 and 7, each team shall supply a set of goalkeeper shirts without names or numbers. These shirts will only be used in those special circumstances in which an outfield player must take the position of goalkeeper during a match. This extra set of goalkeeper shirts must be provided in the same three colours as the regular goalkeeper shirts.
- 9. FIFA will supply a sufficient number of players' sleeve badges with the official competition logo of the World Cup, which shall be affixed on the right-hand sleeve of each shirt, and the FIFA Fair Play patch, which shall be affixed on the left-hand sleeve of each shirt. FIFA will issue a circular letter to the participating clubs outlining the instructions for use of the players' sleeve badges.
- 10. The official and reserve team kits and all goalkeeper kits (including the goalkeeper shirts without names and numbers) shall be taken to every match.
- 11. The footballs used in the World Cup shall be selected and exclusively supplied by FIFA. The footballs shall conform with the provisions of the Laws of the Game and the FIFA Equipment Regulations. They shall bear one of the following three designations: the official "FIFA APPROVED" logo, the official "FIFA INSPECTED" logo or the "INTERNATIONAL MATCHBALL STANDARD" reference.
- 12. Each team will receive training balls from FIFA prior to the World Cup after the successful submission of the required team entry and team colours information as well as additional training balls upon arrival in the host country. Only these balls delivered by FIFA may be used for training and warm-up sessions in the official stadiums and at the official training sites.

11 Flags and anthems

1. During the World Cup, the FIFA flag and the flags of the host country or host confederation and of the associations of both competing clubs shall be flown in the stadium at every match. The FIFA Fair Play flag and the UN flag shall also be hoisted or draped in the stadium, clearly visible from the VIP box. In addition, at every match, the club flags of the two teams concerned will be displayed on the pitch before the match.
2. The FIFA anthem shall be played while the teams are entering the pitch.

12 Official club emblem and club name

1. Subject to the restrictions set out in pars 2 to 6 below, participating clubs may display their official emblem and name only once on all playing equipment items, namely once on the shirt, once on the shorts and once on each sock.
2. Any such type of identification of the participating club listed in par. 1 above may not contain or stylise, or by any means give the impression of, any manufacturer's identification or other elements which, in FIFA's reasonable opinion, create an association with a sponsor or manufacturer (e.g. slogans, design features or other elements).
3. Any such type of identification of the participating club listed in par. 1 above may be printed, embroidered or sewn on as a badge. Any identification of the participating club shall be attached permanently to the respective playing equipment item. No such identification of the participating club may be attached with Velcro or other temporary means.
4. Any type of identification of the participating club listed in par. 1 above must not interfere with other elements of the respective playing equipment item identifying the player (e.g. player's number and name) and must not impede the clear distinction of the players and the opposing team.

5. There are no restrictions on the shape of the emblem, but the following measurements and positioning on the playing equipment item must be observed:

- a) Shirt: 100cm²
Front of the shirt, at chest level
- b) Shorts: 50cm²
Front of right or left leg
- c) Socks: 50cm² per sock
Free positioning

6. There are no restrictions on the script used, but the following measurements and positioning on the playing equipment item must be observed:

Front of the shirt, at chest level, immediately adjacent to the emblem of the participating club
- b) Shorts: 12cm²
Front of right or left leg, immediately adjacent to the emblem of the participating club
- c) Socks: 12cm² per sock
Free positioning

The lettering used for the official name of the participating club must not exceed 2cm in height.

7. In addition to the types of identification of the participating club listed in par. 1 above, one identification of the participating club may be chosen from among its official emblem, official mascot, official symbol, official name and nickname to be displayed on the shirt and/or shorts in the form of jacquard weave, embossing, laser etching or tonal print as a special manufacturing technique. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, there is no limitation as to the number, size and positioning of this identification. The use of any other special manufacturing technique requires FIFA's prior written approval. The colour of the special manufacturing technique pattern must be similar to that of the playing equipment item in question. The special manufacturing technique pattern must not dominate, contain a contrasting colour or affect the distinctiveness of the playing equipment items.

13 Advertising

1. The advertising of tobacco or strong alcoholic beverages, as well as slogans of a political, sexist, religious or racist nature, or for other causes that offend common decency, are prohibited.
2. Recognition for a participating club's sponsor on playing kits is permitted on the front of the shirt only. Participating clubs may display advertising on the shirt for one sponsor, provided that:
 - a) the advertising company is the main sponsor of the club;
 - b) the advertisement displayed during the World Cup corresponds to the advertisement displayed on the players' shirts throughout the latest season of the club's domestic league and/or throughout the international club competition that enabled the club to qualify for the World Cup;
 - c) the surface area used to advertise a sponsor or product does not exceed 200cm² and the lettering used does not exceed 10cm in height;
 - d) the club's sports equipment otherwise complies with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.

14 Venues, stadiums, training sites, dates and kick-off times for matches

- 1. The venues, dates and kick-off times of the matches shall be proposed by the Organising Association, subject to the approval of the FIFA Organising Committee.
- 2. The FIFA Organising Committee shall fix the dates and venues of the matches, allowing each team a minimum rest period of 48 hours between matches.
- 3. The Organising Association shall ensure that the stadiums and facilities in which the matches take place comply with the FIFA Safety Regulations and other FIFA guidelines and instructions for international matches in force. The stadiums selected for use during the World Cup shall be subject to approval by FIFA. The Organising Association is responsible for safety and order in and around the stadiums before, during and after matches.
- 4. As a general rule, World Cup matches may only be played in all-seater stadiums.
- 5. The fields of play, accessory equipment and all facilities for each match shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations. All goals must be equipped with white goal posts and white and black goal nets with grey support posts. Each stadium shall have spare goals, nets and corner flags located in close proximity to the field of play for contingency purposes. Matches shall be played on natural grass or, provided special dispensation is granted by FIFA, on artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Concept for Football Turf or the International Artificial Turf Standard.
- 6. Matches may be played in daylight or under floodlight. Matches played at night may be played only at venues with floodlighting installations that ensure that the whole pitch is evenly lit according to FIFA specifications of 2,000 lux and is suitable for high-definition television production. An emergency independent power generator shall also be available in each stadium which, in the event of a power failure, guarantees at least two-thirds of the FIFA-specified intensity of light for the whole pitch and ensures emergency lighting in the whole stadium. The FIFA Organising Committee is entitled to grant exceptions, which are final.

7. Weather and pitch conditions permitting, teams that are due to play a match in a stadium in which they have not previously played will be entitled to one 60-minute training session in that stadium no later than the day before their match. The two teams who qualify for the final may request another official 60-minute training session, even if they have already played a match in the stadium before. Training times will be communicated by FIFA. In principle, a minimum of 60 minutes shall be set between the end of one team's training session and the start of the next team's training session. If the pitch is not in good condition or the training session would negatively affect the state of the pitch, FIFA may shorten or cancel the training session and direct the teams only to inspect the pitch wearing training shoes.

8. The teams will be entitled to warm up on the pitch before each match, conditions permitting. If the pitch is not in good condition or training sessions would negatively affect the state of the pitch for the match, or if the pitch is to be used for ceremonies related to the World Cup, FIFA may shorten or cancel the warm-up session.

9. Smoking is not allowed in the technical area, in the vicinity of the field of play or within the competition areas such as the dressing rooms.

10. The Organising Association shall provide training sites for the teams. In principle, each participating club shall have a dedicated training site. These training sites shall be in good condition and approved by FIFA at least ten days before the start of the World Cup. They shall be situated near the team hotel and made available at least five days before the team's first match until one day after the team's last match in the World Cup. Each training site shall be equipped with at least one dressing room with lockers, showers and toilets. The Organising Association shall provide support personnel and suitable training site equipment at all official training sites, including but not limited to cones and movable goals.

11. The participating clubs shall use only those training sites which have been officially designated for training by FIFA.

12. The stadiums and training sites shall not be used for any other matches or events from at least ten days prior to the start of the World Cup until the World Cup has been completed, unless the FIFA Organising Committee gives special permission.

13. All stadiums and training sites shall be free of any and all commercial activities and identifications (e.g. boards and other signage) other than those of FIFA's Commercial Affiliates at least five days prior to the first match of the World Cup until one day after completion of the final match.

15 Fields of play, retractable roofs, clocks, displays and giant screens

1. The fields of play, accessory equipment and all facilities for each match of the World Cup shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations. The pitch shall have the following dimensions at a minimum: length 105m, width 68m. The total surface area shall have the following dimensions: length 125m, width 80m, in order to provide sufficient space for warm-up and pitch-side photographer positions.

2. Each stadium shall have sufficient space behind the goals to allow the players to warm up during the matches. A maximum of six players shall warm up at the same time (with a maximum of two officials). Only the goalkeeper may warm up with a ball. If there is not sufficient space behind the goals, both teams shall warm up in the designated area beside the substitute bench of Team B, behind assistant referee no. 1. In this case, only a maximum of three players per team may warm up at the same time.

3. If a stadium has a retractable roof, the FIFA Match Commissioner and the FIFA General Coordinator, in consultation with the referee and the two teams' officials, shall decide before the match whether the roof shall be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match coordination meeting on the day before the match, although it may subsequently be modified prior to kick-off in the event of sudden and significant weather condition changes. If the match starts with the roof closed, it shall remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open and there is a serious deterioration in the weather conditions, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match. In such an event, the roof is to remain closed until the end of the match.

4. Clocks in the stadium showing the length of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply if extra time is played (i.e. after 15 minutes of each half). The half-time interval shall be 15 minutes.

5. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This also applies to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time. Each allowance for time lost shall be shown on the panels or electronic display boards by the fourth official.

6. Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, shall be used to indicate the substitution of players and the number of minutes to be allowed for time lost.

7. The use of giant screens must be in compliance with the Guidelines for the Use of Giant Screens at FIFA Matches.

16 Refereeing

1. The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials (hereinafter referred to collectively as “match officials”) shall be appointed for each match by the FIFA Referees Committee. They shall be selected from the FIFA International Refereeing List in force and shall not come from a member association that is represented by a team playing in the match in question. A reserve assistant referee may also be appointed for certain matches.

2. The match officials shall receive their official refereeing kit and equipment from FIFA. They shall wear and use only this kit and equipment on match days.
3. The match officials shall be provided with training facilities. These training facilities must be in good condition and must be approved by FIFA at least ten days prior to the start of the World Cup and shall not be used for any other matches or events from at least ten days prior to the start of the World Cup until its completion.
4. If the referee or one of the assistant referees is prevented from carrying out his duties, such referee or assistant referee shall be replaced by the fourth official. The FIFA Referees Committee shall be informed immediately.
5. After each match, the referee shall complete and sign the official FIFA report form. The referee shall hand it over to the FIFA General Coordinator at the stadium immediately after the match. On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences of significance, such as misconduct of players leading to caution or expulsion, unsporting behaviour by supporters and/or by officials or any other person acting on behalf of a participating club at the match and any other incident happening before, during and after the match in as much detail as possible.
6. The decisions of the FIFA Referees Committee are final and binding and not subject to appeal.

17 Laws of the Game

All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game in force at the time of the World Cup and as laid down by the International Football Association Board. In the case of any discrepancy between the interpretation of the translations of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall be authoritative.

18 Ticketing

1. Each participating club is entitled to receive the following complimentary tickets for the World Cup:

- a) 30 numbered tickets for seats in the Category 1 section nearest to the VIP area for its own team's matches;
- b) 10 tickets for the VIP area for its own team's matches;
- c) 2 tickets for the VIP area for other teams' matches, until the club is eliminated from the World Cup.

2. FIFA will issue a ticket allocation agreement to each of the participating clubs. All participating clubs shall comply with this ticket allocation agreement and ensure that their members, Delegation Members and other affiliates also comply with such agreement.

19 Commercial rights

1. FIFA is the original owner of all of the rights emanating from the World Cup and any other related events coming under its respective jurisdiction, without any restrictions as to content, time, place and law.

2. FIFA owns and controls all intellectual property rights relating to the World Cup, including, without limitation, rights relating to the FIFA marks and the marks of the World Cup, including the translations thereof, the official emblem, any official poster(s), the official mascot (if applicable) and the official music (if applicable) on a universal basis. Only these marks may be used in connection with the World Cup.

All of FIFA's marks and those connected with the World Cup may only be used in accordance with the guidelines determined by FIFA.

3. FIFA owns and controls all marketing rights and media rights in relation to the World Cup and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the Organising Association, the participating clubs, the coaches, the players and any third party, to exploit itself or through a third party, at its own discretion and on a universal basis, any and all marketing rights and media rights in relation to the World Cup. FIFA will issue Media and Marketing Regulations specifying these marketing rights and media rights. All participating clubs shall fully comply with these regulations and ensure that their members, officials, players, delegates and other affiliates also comply.

4. For the purposes of these Regulations, “marketing rights” shall mean all rights of exploitation of the World Cup (other than media rights described in art. 19 par. 5 below), all advertising, including electronic and virtual promotion, marketing, merchandising (including but not limited to publications, music, coins, stamps, DVDs, videos, apparel and electronic games of any nature), licensing, franchising, sponsorship, ticketing, hospitality, betting/gaming, publications, database rights, and any other rights and/or associated commercial opportunities relating to or in connection with the World Cup, including advertising, franchising, displaying, sampling and selling rights of any nature at the stadiums and other official sites.

5. For the purposes of these Regulations, “media rights” shall mean the right to film, photograph, record, broadcast, transmit and/or display the World Cup, including all recordings thereof (or any part thereof) in any form and in all media now known or hereafter devised, including but not limited to television, radio, internet and any other mobile or fixed-line broadcasts or data services.

6. FIFA has the non-exclusive royalty-free right to produce and sell goods on which the official name, nickname, official mascot, official emblem and/or official symbol of a participating club or clubs is or are placed together with the FIFA marks and/or the marks of the World Cup, provided that all such goods are otherwise unbranded. Participating clubs shall, upon request, provide notification to FIFA of their acknowledgement of this provision.

7. Participating clubs and their players shall inform their commercial affiliates, including but not limited to any sponsors, licensees and media rights licensees, that they have no marketing rights or media rights in connection with the World Cup, in particular, that they may not conduct any promotional activities which involve the use of the official emblem, the official mascot(s) or any marks which are confusingly similar to FIFA's marks or those relating to the World Cup.

Participating clubs and their players shall assist FIFA in resolving any intellectual property infringements or ambush marketing activities involving the participating clubs' or players' commercial affiliates, and participating clubs and players are expressly prohibited from identifying their commercial affiliates in connection with the official emblem or name of the World Cup or any other marks of the World Cup or FIFA marks in any media (including but not limited to any promotional materials) in such a way as may give rise to an association between the participating clubs' and players' commercial affiliates and the World Cup.

8. FIFA may appoint a "Title Sponsor" who shall have the right to have its name associated with the title of the World Cup. The Title Sponsor shall be granted the right to present a prize to the best player of the World Cup (cf. art. 26 par. 7b).

9. A participating club may establish its own Team Media Centre ("TMC") before and during the World Cup if it wishes to do so. All costs involved in the installation and management of TMCs shall be solely borne by the participating club concerned.

10. The participating clubs, their officials and their players accept that FIFA has the royalty-free right to use, and/or sub-license the right to use, in perpetuity and in any medium known or hereafter devised, any of the records, names, marks and images of the participating clubs and their officials and players, including any representation thereof, which may appear or be generated in connection with their participation in or involvement with the World Cup, solely for the purposes of promoting audio-visual coverage of the World Cup. FIFA's right in this provision shall be exclusive in relation to the World Cup.

11. FIFA's internet website will be the only official website for the World Cup. FIFA has full control over the content, appearance and related activities of FIFA's website.

12. FIFA will take all legal and any other steps it deems appropriate to prevent and prohibit unauthorised persons and/or companies, including the participating clubs' or players' commercial affiliates, from commercially identifying with, or otherwise exploiting, the World Cup.

13. Participating clubs and players may not:

a) sell, offer to sell or authorise any third party to sell tickets over the internet; or

b) use and/or authorise any third party (including participating clubs' and players' commercial affiliates) to use tickets for advertising, sales promotions or any other commercial purposes (including premiums, give-aways or prizes in competitions, contests or sweepstakes).

14. Participating clubs shall refrain from the development, use or registration of any name, logo, trade mark, indicia, brand name, symbol, service mark or other mark (whether registered or unregistered) or designation which may be inferred by the public as identifying with FIFA or the World Cup, including the words "Club World", "CWC", "FIFA", "Club World Cup" (or any other term used in any language to identify with the World Cup), or the development, use or registration of any dates in connection with the name of the host country, venues or host cities of the World Cup, or any similar indicia or derivation of such terms or dates in any language.

The participating clubs shall further ensure that their commercial affiliates comply with the provisions of this section, and that such commercial affiliates do not engage in any activity which might give rise to the impression that such commercial affiliates are officially associated with the World Cup.

15. Participating clubs shall not oppose any of the trade mark or copyright applications filed by FIFA or its affiliates, nominees or licensees in respect of FIFA's marks. Participating clubs shall not in any way challenge, or apply for any copyright, trade mark, or patent protection, or domain name registration (whether in respect of, or in relation to FIFA's marks or otherwise) which would adversely affect the relevant owner's proprietary interests in FIFA's marks, or assist any other person to do so.

16. For the avoidance of doubt, the participating clubs and their players shall remain free to exploit their own proprietary rights (including intellectual property rights) which are unconnected with the World Cup.

20 Financial provisions

1. Each participating club shall be responsible for and bear the costs of the following:

- a) adequate insurance cover for its Delegation Members;
- b) board and lodging during the World Cup (in excess of the amounts paid by FIFA or the Organising Association);
- c) any costs associated with additional members not covered under art. 20 pars 2 and 3.

2. FIFA shall bear the costs of international air travel (business class) for 35 people per participating club from the capital city of the association of the club (or, in exceptional cases, from another city to be decided by FIFA) to the international airport nearest to the venue where the team is scheduled to play its first match.

- a) The participating clubs shall organise travel for their delegation themselves, subject to approval from FIFA.

b) The participating clubs are responsible for arranging a deal with the airlines to reduce the cost for excess baggage. FIFA will decide on the weight of excess baggage for which FIFA will bear the costs, and will inform the participating clubs accordingly.

c) The participating clubs are fully responsible for arranging return travel in accordance with FIFA regulations.

3. The Organising Association shall bear the costs of the following:

a) domestic travel (ground, rail or air) within the host country for 35 people per participating club;

i) One team bus, one mini-van, one luggage van, and one car will be provided for the exclusive use of each participating club during the period commencing five days prior to each team's first match and until one day after its last match.

ii) One additional luggage van will be provided when travelling between the airport and the official team hotel, and between venues.

b) board and lodging for 35 people per participating club starting five days prior to each team's first match and ending one day after its last match. This includes, in particular:

i) 11 double rooms and 13 single rooms;

ii) 1 meeting room;

iii) 1 equipment room;

iv) 1 massage room;

v) 1 exclusive area for dining;

vi) 3 meals per day, and a light meal for every match day.

- c) training facilities for the participating clubs;
 - d) laundry service for a set of match or training kits for 35 people per participating club per day, starting five days prior to each team's first match and ending one day after its last match.
- 4. Any expenses other than those stipulated in these Regulations and explicitly outlined to be borne by FIFA or the Organising Association shall be borne by the relevant participating club.

21 Draw

1. The draw for the World Cup will take place prior to the first match of the World Cup. The date will be communicated by circular letter.
2. The draw will be organised by FIFA and the Organising Association and may (subject to timing considerations) be combined with a Team Workshop (and other related activities) on the World Cup.

22 Arrival at venues

Each team participating in the World Cup shall arrive in the venue of their first match at least three days before the team's first match. Only official team hotels under contract with either FIFA or the Organising Association shall be used for the teams' accommodation.

23 Eligibility of players

1. A player is eligible to play in the World Cup provided he is duly registered for his club in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players as well as with the regulations of the participating club's member association. Therefore, the requirements that must be met for a player to be eligible to participate in the World Cup include, but are not limited to:

- a) registration as an amateur or professional with the participating club's member association for the relevant participating club during a registration period fixed by the relevant association or outside the registration period, if the exception listed in the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players applies;

- b) adherence to the limitation on registrations with different clubs and participation in official matches with different clubs during one season as established by the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players;
 - c) if the player is registered for his club as a professional, existence of a written employment contract binding the professional player to his club and meeting the requirements concerning minimum and maximum length.
2. Protests regarding the eligibility of players (cf. art. 9 par. 3 of the Regulations) shall be decided by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
3. The participating clubs are responsible for fielding only eligible players. Failure to do so will lead to the consequences stipulated in the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

24 Player lists and official delegation list

Provisional list of players

1. Each participating club shall send a provisional list of 35 players (a minimum of four of whom shall be goalkeepers), to which it will attach its list of not more than 22 officials, to the FIFA general secretariat by 26 October 2012. The provisional list shall be accompanied by the following information for each player or official (including coach):

Players	Officials
Full name	Full name
All first names	All first names
Place and date of birth	Place and date of birth
Nationality	Nationality
Copy of passport(s)	Copy of passport(s)
Popular name	Function
Name to be placed on the shirt
Number to be placed on the shirt
Position

In addition to the above, the date of registration of the player with the club (along with a brief explanation if the player was registered outside a registration period) shall be included.

The provisional list of players shall contain a statement by the participating club's member association, indicating the dates of its last registration period prior to the World Cup, as well as the dates of its next registration period. Furthermore, each participating club shall confirm the accuracy of the details contained in its provisional list.

Final list of players

- 2. The final list of the 23 players (three of whom shall be goalkeepers) selected to participate in the World Cup shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, using the official form, by 26 November 2012. The players on the final list of players must be chosen from the players on the provisional list.

- 3. Only the 23 players on the final list of players will be permitted to take part in the World Cup. Only the numbers 1 to 23 may be allocated to these players, with number 1 being reserved exclusively for one of the goalkeepers. A player may, however, be allocated a number greater than 23 provided that the player is registered with the same number in the current season of his club's league competition and upon confirmation by the relevant member association. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the final list of players. In the event of a goalkeeper needing to be replaced by an outfield player (due to injury or a red card), each team shall provide a goalkeeper shirt without a name or number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from the other players.

- 4. A player listed on the final list of players may be replaced by a player from the provisional list only in the event of serious injury or illness up until 24 hours before the kick-off of his team's first match. Such replacements must be approved in writing by the FIFA General Medical Officer upon receipt and acceptance of a written detailed medical assessment. The FIFA General Medical Officer will issue a certificate stating that the injury or illness is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part in the World Cup and hand over such certificate to the FIFA Organising Committee for approval. Upon approval, the participating club shall immediately nominate a replacement and inform the FIFA general secretariat accordingly (including all the specific player information listed in art. 24 par. 1).

5. The final list of 23 players will be published by the FIFA general secretariat.

Start list

6. All 23 players shall be named on the start list for each match (11 selected players and 12 substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of the substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match.

7. Each team is responsible for ensuring that the start list is completed properly, signed by the head coach and submitted to the FIFA General Coordinator at least 90 minutes before the kick-off of the respective match, and that only the selected players start the match. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond to the numbers indicated on the start list.

8. If any of the 11 starting players submitted on the start list are not able to begin the match due to injury or illness, they may be replaced by any of the eligible substitutes as long as the FIFA General Coordinator is officially informed prior to kick-off. Within 24 hours, the team concerned must also provide FIFA with a medical report issued by the team doctor responsible (in one of the four official languages of FIFA).

Further to the above, any injured or ill player who is removed from the start list will no longer be eligible to take part in the match, and thus cannot be selected as a substitute player at any time during the match. Such a change to the start list will not reduce the number of official substitutions that may be made by a team during the match. In accordance with Law 3 of the Laws of the Game, up to a maximum of three substitutions may still be made.

Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill player who was removed from the start list may be seated on the team bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.

Only the players who were identified on the official start list submitted to the FIFA General Coordinator, or were confirmed as a warm-up injury/illness replacement player, may start the match.

Substitutes' bench

9. Not more than 24 people (12 officials and 12 substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. A suspended player or official will not be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. For every match, participating clubs shall submit the list of up to a maximum of 24 people sitting on the bench.

Identity

10. Before the start of the World Cup, every player on the final list must prove his identity, nationality and age by producing his legally valid individual passport with photograph (stating day, month and year of birth). Every player and every team official must also sign a declaration of compliance wherein they agree to submit to the Regulations at hand. Any player or team official who fails to submit and sign these documents will not be allowed to take part in the World Cup.

Accreditation

11. The final list of 23 players plus 22 team officials will constitute the official delegation list. FIFA shall issue only these players and team officials with an official accreditation bearing a photograph.

12. Only players in possession of a valid accreditation may play in the World Cup. The accreditation shall always be available for inspection.

13. Injured players who are replaced up until 24 hours before the kick-off of their team's first match (cf. art. 24 par. 4) must return their accreditation to FIFA. Accordingly, players who have returned their accreditation shall no longer be considered members of the participating club's official delegation list.

14. The participating clubs shall ensure that all accreditation data required by FIFA is submitted by the deadline stipulated by FIFA. Further details will be outlined in a FIFA circular letter.

15. FIFA shall provide at its discretion a certain number of Supplementary Accreditation Devices (SADs) to each team in order to control and restrict access to the dressing rooms and the field of play on match days. Further details will be given to the teams by means of circular letter.

25 Competition format

1. The World Cup shall be played as a tournament in Japan from 6 December 2012 to 16 December 2012.
2. The opening match will be played between the representative club of the Organising Association (“host”) and the club of the OFC.

The quarter-final pairings will be determined by means of a public draw. The winner of the opening match and the clubs of the AFC, CAF and CONCACAF, which will be drawn as Teams A, B and C, will contest the quarter-finals as follows:

3	Winner of Match 1 v. Team C

The losing clubs from the quarter-finals will contest the play-off for fifth place as follows:

The losing clubs from the semi-finals will contest the play-off for third place as follows:

7 Loser of Match 5 v. Loser of Match 6

The winners of the two semi-finals will contest the final as follows:

8 Winner of Match 5 v. Winner of Match 6

3. If a match is level at the end of normal playing time, extra time shall be played (two periods of 15 minutes each) and followed, if necessary, by kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner.

If matches 4 and 7 are level at the end of normal playing time, no extra time shall be played and the winner shall be determined by penalty kicks in accordance with the procedure described in the Laws of the Game.

26 Trophy, awards and medals

- 1. A representative from FIFA will present the winner of the World Cup with the trophy.
- 2. A souvenir plaque will be presented to each participating club.
- 3. A diploma will be presented to the clubs ranked first, second, third and fourth in the World Cup.
- 4. Medals will be presented to each of the top three teams in the World Cup, i.e. gold medals to the winners, silver medals to the runners-up and bronze medals to the team ranked third.
- 5. One medal will be presented to each of the match officials who take charge of the play-off for third place and the final.

6. A fair play contest will be held during the World Cup (cf. Appendix). The FIFA Organising Committee will determine the ranking at the end of the World Cup. Such decisions are final.

7. At the conclusion of the World Cup, the following special awards will be presented:

a) Fair Play Trophy

The FIFA Fair Play Trophy, a fair play medal for each Delegation Member, a diploma and a voucher for USD 10,000 worth of football equipment (to be used for youth football development) will be presented to the team finishing first in the fair play contest. The applicable rules are in the fair play contest regulations.

b) Golden Ball

The Golden Ball will be awarded to the best player in the World Cup on the basis of a ranking compiled by the Technical Study Group. A Silver Ball and a Bronze Ball will be awarded to the second and third best players.

c) The winner of the Golden Ball will be presented with an award by the Title Sponsor, for which the player will receive a car as a prize or an equivalent amount in cash.

8. There are no official awards other than those listed above, unless otherwise decided by the FIFA Organising Committee.

27 Special circumstances

The FIFA Organising Committee shall, in conjunction with the Organising Association, issue any instructions necessitated by special circumstances that may arise in the host country. These instructions shall form an integral part of these Regulations.

28 Matters not provided for Any matters not provided for in these Regulations and any cases of force majeure shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee. All decisions shall be final and binding and not subject to appeal.

29 Languages

In the case of any discrepancy between the interpretation of the English, French, Spanish or German texts of these Regulations, the English text shall be authoritative.

30 Copyright

The copyright of the match schedule drawn up in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations is the property of FIFA.

31 No waiver

Any waiver by FIFA of any breach of these Regulations (including of any document referred to in these Regulations) will not operate as, or be construed to be, a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision or a waiver of any right arising out of these Regulations or any other document. Any such waiver shall only be valid if given in writing. Failure by FIFA to insist upon strict adherence to any provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations, on one or more occasions will not be considered to be a waiver of, or deprive FIFA of the right to subsequently insist upon strict adherence to that provision or any other provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations.

32 Enforcement

These Regulations were approved by the FIFA Executive Committee on 28 September 2012 and came into force immediately.

The previous version of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to any matters that arose before these Regulations came into force.

Fair play contest regulations

I. General provisions

1. As part of its campaign to promote fair play, FIFA regularly holds a fair play contest during its championships, based on an appraisal of the teams' conduct by a FIFA delegate such as a member of the Technical Study Group or a member of a standing committee.
2. The objective of fair play activities is to foster a sporting spirit among players, team officials and spectators, thereby heightening the fans' enjoyment of the game.
3. At the final whistle of each of the relevant games, the delegate shall complete the appropriate fair play form after consulting the referee and the referee assessor.
4. Only teams that have played in at least two matches shall be eligible for participation in the fair play contest.
5. The FIFA Organising Committee shall compile and publish the classification at the end of the World Cup. Its decision is final.
6. FIFA will award the team that wins the fair play contest a trophy, a medal for each player and official on the team delegation list, and a diploma, all of which the team can keep permanently. The team shall also receive a voucher valued at USD 10,000, which shall be exchanged for a supply of football equipment to be used exclusively for youth development.

II. Assessment criteria

1. The assessment form contains six criteria by which the teams' fair play performance shall be judged, stressing the positive aspects rather than negative. As a general rule, maximum points shall only be awarded if the team concerned displays a positive attitude.

2. Red and yellow cards shall be deducted from a maximum of 10 points:

- first yellow card: minus 1 point
- second yellow/indirect red card: minus 3 points
- direct red card: minus 3 points
- yellow card & direct red card: minus 4 points

Red and yellow cards are the only criteria entailing minus points.

3. Positive play

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 10 points

The aim of this criterion is to reward attacking and attractive play, and shall take into account such aspects as:

a) Positive aspects

- attacking rather than defensive tactics;
- speeding up the game;
- constantly attempting to score even if the desired result (e.g. qualification) has already been achieved.

b) Negative aspects

- tactics that rely on rough play;
- play-acting;
- time-wasting, etc.

c) As a general rule, positive play is correlated with the number of scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

4. Respect towards the opponent

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations and opponents, etc.

When assessing the players' behaviour towards the opponents, duplication of the judgment for red and yellow cards should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards as well as those overlooked by the referee.

Assessment shall be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than on infringements. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards opponents shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

5. Respect towards the referee/match officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the match officials and the decisions they take.

A positive attitude towards the referee, including acceptance of decisions without protest, shall be rewarded. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards the match officials shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

6. Behaviour of the team officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Coaches and other team officials are expected to encourage the sporting, technical, tactical and ethical standards of their team and to direct the players to behave in accordance with the principles of fair play.

Both positive and negative factors in the behaviour of the team officials shall be included in the assessment, such as for instance whether they calm down angry players or how they accept the referee's decisions. Inciting or provoking players shall be rated negatively.

Cooperation with the media shall also be a factor in the assessment. Behaviour that is faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

7. Behaviour of the crowd

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

The crowd is considered to be an integral part of a football match. Fans can contribute to the positive atmosphere of a match by encouraging their team by cheering and singing etc. in the spirit of fair play.

Spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee. They should appreciate the opponents' performance regardless of the result and in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or the opponents' supporters.

The maximum number of points (5) may only be awarded if all these requirements have been satisfied, especially as regards creating a positive atmosphere.

This criterion is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible "n.a." (not applicable) shall be entered under this item.

III. Final assessment

1. The final assessment of a team is obtained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team A:

$$8 + 7 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 4 = 31$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (40):

$$31 \div 40 = 0.775$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.775 \times 1,000 = 775$

If, however, the number of fans supporting a certain team is negligible and the “behaviour of the crowd” criterion consequently disregarded (“n.a.” – cf. art. II par. 7 of the fair play contest regulations), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Thus the final assessment would be attained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team B:

$$7 + 8 + 2 + 5 + 2 = 24$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (35):

$$24 \div 35 = 0.686$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.686 \times 1,000 = 686$

The overall assessment of a team during the World Cup shall be calculated by adding the points attained at each match and dividing this figure by the number of matches played.

2. In addition to making the assessment, members of FIFA may give a short oral account of the teams' fair play performance to explain the positive and negative factors, which form the basis of their assessment. The account may also point out any outstanding gestures of fair play from a player, official, referee or any other person. However, no additional points shall be awarded for this reason.

These regulations have been approved by the FIFA Organising Committee. These regulations have been ratified by the FIFA Executive Committee and come into force immediately.
